

division on women and crime
american society of criminology

established 1984

Executive Board Meeting of Division on Women and Crime

Monday, September 12, 2022, 11am

Present: Samantha Gavin, Michelle Hughes Miller, Staci Strobl, Shavonne Arthurs, Sarah Rogers, Vanessa Garcia, Viola (in at 11:25am)

Absent: Aneesa and Danielle

1. Renaming Survey: 360 active members received email. As of today: 128 yes, 17 no, 10 abstain. Looks like it will pass.
2. Feminist Criminology Editor (Pasko & Lopez): Sage will not increase salary because current salary already in contract. Will discuss for next year. DWC will not pay for higher salary. New editors agreed.
  - a. Reproductive Rights Statement on social media and DWC website this week (?)
    - i. Leslie Dawn has been editing and working with co-chairs to update website
3. 40th Anniversary
  - a. Memorabilia
    - i. Will need to solicit designs and membership will need to vote before adding to new swag.
    - ii. Sarah will start pricing new swag and reach out to Tricia Rhodes, head of the outreach committee
4. DQC collaboration: co-chairs met with Angela Dwyer and Meredith Worthen about collaborating on social, etc. They are hesitant to do something major with us, but will invite their membership to our social because some of them may want to attend.
  - a. Discussed co-sponsoring a teaching workshop together for ASC 2023
  - b. Planning a meeting with DWC & DQC executive boards for ASC 2022 in Atlanta
    - i. Nametags for meeting and social with division membership listed so we can see overlap and reach out personally
5. Elections: need to form election committee (no board members) and collaborate with D&I committee on edits and solicitations
  - a. Send election form and count votes prior to ASC 2022
    - i. Positions on ballot: grad student counselor, junior counselor (Danielle will need to run for her position again), one-year senior counselor, two-year senior counselor, vice chair (Staci will need to run for her position again), and secretary/treasurer (Sarah will need to run for her position again).
    - ii. Because we have gotten off schedule due to resignations/special elections, we will ask for vote of confidence for current co-chairs to stay on additional year to train the newly elected (2023) chair-elect—as detailed in the new constitution (not yet voted on).
6. ASC news:
  - a. Tom Stuckey hosting session to discussion enhancing interdisciplinary and international research across divisions. 11/18 3:30-4:50 Atrium Level A705

- b. ASC oral history project: send suggestions to ASC with several DWC members
  - i. Examples named: Sheetal Ranjan, Rosemary Barberet, Hillary Potter, Vera Lopez, Walter DeKesseredy, Staci Strobl
  - ii. Archives: <https://digitalcommons.unf.edu/dwc/>
- 7. New business:
  - a. Vanessa was asked to be deputy editor of Fem Crim by new editors Lopez & Pasko.
    - i. Vanessa is chair of publication committee and helped put new editors in their position
    - ii. Discussion from EB resulted in suggesting Vanessa not accept the invitation
  - b. Need new members for Publications committee
  - c. Need members for ad hoc committee on history/archives for DWC until elected position is voted on per the new constitution
    - i. Sarah volunteered to be on committee; solicitation will be sent to membership by co-chairs

Meeting Adjourned TIME 11:55 EST (that's when Sarah had to leave to teach class; further discussion may have taken place after that time).